Thank You

Thank you for every call and all the cards. The words spoken to me and written to me were like the Balm of Gilead on my head. Every kind word spoke comfort to me. Thank you for the flower arrangement that I used during Christmas. Your love toward me will always be remembered. My sister is with God. Praise the Lord.

Sue Blankenship

To everyone at ABC,
We say a huge thank you! What a blessing you have been to us. We are immensely grateful for the gift of stability you have given already in 2020 and going in to 2021. You have had a specific and significant role in our life and ministry. Thank you for the bonus Christmas gift!

Love, Cary and Reny Clifton

Missionary of the Week Wilfred Johnson

Wilfred Johnson serves as President Emeritus of the Guatemala Bible Seminary. In a recent letter, he writes “The seminary year is over and the unforgettable 2020. I will not go into a discourse on what was learned or not learned. I am just glad it came to a close. I admire the Guatemalan character that has learned over the centuries to take things in stride. I do not like online teaching as it misses the personal contact with the students. The condition of my eyes may determine how much I can teach. Please pray for my eyesight, as reading and working on the computer takes increased time. The Lord has blessed me with very good health so far. I still have lots to do. Christmas was another season without Shirley but family has been so supportive. I miss her famous Christmas cookies. Thank you all again for your prayers and standing with me.”

Birthday Cards

Lenny Ballard's mother, Elizabeth, has lived in an assisted living home for over a year. She will be 96 years young on January 12. She is very sharp and active, racing up and down the hallways, pushing her walker on the way to Bingo or Bible study. Due to COVID, Lenny and Linda haven't been able to visit her as they'd like and Elizabeth's sunny disposition is starting to sink a little. They think birthday cards (even if they are late) would bolster her spirits.

If you would like to send a card, her address is:
